NO. 20170531289-03

TO: Nasdaq ISE, LLC

Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA")

RE: CIBC World Markets Corp., Respondent
Broker-Dealer
CRD No. 630

Pursuant to Rule 9216 of the Nasdaq ISE, LLC ("ISE" or the "Exchange") Code of Procedure,¹ CIBC World Markets Corp. ("CIBC" or the "firm") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, ISE will not bring any future actions against the firm alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

The firm hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of ISE, or to which ISE is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by ISE:

BACKGROUND

The firm became a member of ISE on December 18, 2008, and a member of FINRA on March 14, 1950. Its registrations remain in effect. The firm is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. The firm's U.S. headquarters are in New York, New York, and it has eight branch offices. It currently employs approximately 328 registered representatives. The firm provides a range of investment banking services, including debt and equity financing, corporate lending, prime brokerage services, execution services across all asset classes, and proprietary trading.

The firm does not have any relevant disciplinary history.

SUMMARY

1. The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority's ("FINRA") Trading and Financial Compliance Examinations staff (the "Staff") within the Department of Market

¹ Series 9000 of the Nasdaq BX, Inc. Rules are incorporated by reference into Nasdaq ISE General Rule 5, Section 3, and are thus Nasdaq ISE Rules and thereby applicable to Nasdaq ISE Members, Associated Persons, and other persons subject to Nasdaq ISE's jurisdiction.

Regulation, on behalf of ISE and other options exchanges, conducted a review of the manual options order tickets handled by the firm during the period between February 13, 2017 and February 17, 2017 (the “Exam Review Period”).

2. During the Exam Review Period, CIBC failed to accurately record the order receipt and order transmission times of manual options orders it had routed to the ISE and various other national securities exchanges for execution in violation of Rule 17a-3(a)(6)(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and ISE Rule 1400.² From February 2017 through October 2017 (the “Supervisory Review Period”), the firm also violated ISE Rule 401³ by failing to establish, maintain and enforce written supervisory procedures (“WSPs”) and a system of supervision that were reasonably designed to assure compliance with, and to detect and prevent violations of the applicable federal securities laws and ISE rules that: (i) require the accurate documentation of the order receipt and transmission times of options orders; and (ii) prohibit front-running and anticipatory hedging.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

3. The recordkeeping provisions of the federal securities laws and ISE rules are designed to ensure that regulators have access to certain basic information about securities transactions. Access to transaction records serves as an essential component for effective surveillance and examination of broker-dealers by ISE and other self-regulatory organizations.
4. Section 17 of the Exchange Act and Exchange Rule 17a-3(a)(6)(i) promulgated thereunder require broker-dealers, such as CIBC, to create a brokerage order ticket of each brokerage order, and of any other instruction, given or received for the purchase or sale of securities, whether executed or unexecuted. In relevant part, the rule requires the brokerage order ticket to show, among other things, the terms and conditions of the order or instructions, the time the order was received, the time the order was entered, and the time of execution or cancellation. Such records must be accurate.
5. ISE Rule 1400(a) requires that each member make, keep current and preserve such books and records as prescribed by the ISE and by the Exchange Act.
6. ISE Rule 401 states that “[n]o Member shall engage in conduct in violation of the Exchange Act, the By-Laws or the Rules of the Exchange, or the rules of the Clearing Corporation insofar as they relate to the reporting or clearance of any Exchange Transaction, or any written interpretation thereof. Every Member shall so supervise persons associated with the Member as to assure compliance therewith.”

² ISE Rule 1400 was superseded and replaced by ISE Rule Options 6E, Section 1 as of June 6, 2019.

³ ISE Rule 401 was superseded and replaced by ISE Rule Options 9, Section 2 as of June 6, 2019.

7. During 2017, the firm handled approximately 520 manual options orders, approximately 59% of which were 308 manual customer options orders routed to certain option exchanges. Thirty-two manual customer options orders routed to these options exchanges during the Exam Review Period were reviewed for timestamp accuracy.
8. From the 32 manual customer options orders routed to various options exchanges for execution during the Exam Review Period, the firm did not maintain an accurate record of the order receipt time for 21 (approximately 66%) of the sampled orders. Of these 21 orders, one was executed on ISE.
9. From the 32 manual customer options orders routed to various options exchanges for execution during the Exam Review Period, the firm did not maintain an accurate record of the order transmission time for 32 (100%) of those orders. Of these 32 orders, two were executed on ISE. A system flaw prevented the firm from ever capturing an accurate transmission time because the system was designed to capture the time it received an execution report, rather than when the order was actually transmitted.
10. The conduct described in paragraphs eight and nine constitutes violations of Rule 17a-3(a)(6)(i) promulgated under the Exchange Act, and ISE Rule 1400.
11. During the Supervisory Review Period, the firm failed to establish and maintain WSPs and a supervisory system applicable to the Firm's U.S. Equity Sales and Trading Desk ("ED Desk") that were reasonably designed to assure compliance with, and to detect and prevent violations of, the recordkeeping provisions of the federal securities laws and ISE rules that require the accurate documentation of the order receipt and transmission times of options orders. During the Supervisory Review Period, the firm's WSPs and supervisory system did not include a supervisory review of the accuracy of order receipt and order transmission times of options orders handled by its ED Desk.
12. The conduct described in paragraph 11 constitutes a violation of ISE Rule 401.
13. During the Supervisory Review Period, the firm failed to establish and maintain WSPs and a supervisory system applicable to the ED Desk that were reasonably designed to assure compliance with Exchange rules prohibiting anticipatory hedging and front-running. The WSPs stated that a review was to be conducted for indications of possible prohibited activities such as front-running of customer orders, but excluded trading principally for client facilitation or bona fide hedging purposes. Additionally, the WSPs did not make any reference as to how its review for anticipatory hedging and front-running was to be conducted.
14. The conduct described in paragraph 13 constitutes a violation of ISE Rule 401.

B. The firm also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

1. A censure; and
2. A fine of $100,000, of which $33,333.33 ($23,333.33 for the books and records violations, and $10,000.00 for the supervision violations), shall be paid to the Exchange.⁴

Acceptance of this AWC is conditioned upon acceptance of similar settlement agreements in related matters between the firm and Nasdaq PHLX LLC and NYSE Arca, Inc.

The firm agrees to pay the monetary sanction upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment is due and payable. It has submitted a Payment Information form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under ISE's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Formal Complaint issued specifying the allegations against the firm;
- B. To be notified of the Formal Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the Exchange Review Council and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, the firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Regulatory Officer, the Exchange Review Council, or any member of the Exchange Review Council, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

The firm further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

OTHER MATTERS

The firm understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by FINRA's Department of Enforcement and the Exchange Review Council, the Review Subcommittee, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs ("ODA"), pursuant to ISE Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against the firm; and

 - 1. This AWC will become part of the firm's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by ISE or any other regulator against the firm;
 - 2. ISE may release this AWC or make a public announcement concerning this agreement and the subject matter thereof in accordance with ISE Rule 8310 and IM-8310-3;⁵ and
 - 3. The firm may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. The firm may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of ISE, or to which ISE is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects the firm's right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which ISE is not a party.
- D. The firm may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. The firm understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this Statement. This Statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by ISE, nor does it reflect the views of the Exchange or its staff.

⁵ Series 8000 of the Nasdaq BX, Inc. Rules are incorporated by reference into Nasdaq ISE General Rule 5, Section 2, and are thus Nasdaq ISE Rules and thereby applicable to Nasdaq ISE Members, Associated Persons, and other persons subject to Nasdaq ISE's jurisdiction.

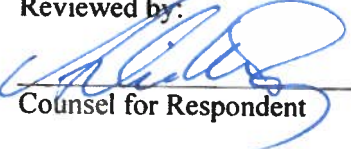

The undersigned, on behalf of the firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that it has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce the firm to submit it.
